

Job Title: Volunteer Graphic Designer

Organization: Black Health Commission

Mission: The Black Health Commission is committed to fostering a culture of community care by enhancing wellbeing and honoring resilience.

Position Overview:

We are seeking a talented and passionate Volunteer Graphic Designer to join our team at the Black Health Commission. The ideal candidate will have a strong eye for design and the ability to create visually compelling graphics that align with our mission and initiatives. This role requires a commitment of at least 3-4 hours per month, with flexibility to accommodate project deadlines and organizational needs. The Volunteer Graphic Designer will work closely with the communications team to produce high-quality visual content for various digital and print materials.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Design engaging and impactful graphics for digital and print materials, including social media posts, flyers, posters, infographics, and event materials.
2. Collaborate with the communications team to conceptualize and execute design projects that effectively communicate the organization's message and goals.
3. Ensure consistency in branding and visual identity across all materials, adhering to brand guidelines and standards.
4. Provide creative input and contribute innovative ideas to enhance the visual appeal of our communications.
5. Manage multiple design projects simultaneously, prioritizing tasks and meeting deadlines in a fast-paced environment.
6. Incorporate feedback from team members and stakeholders to refine and improve design concepts.
7. Stay updated on design trends, techniques, and best practices to continuously elevate the quality of our visual content.
8. Maintain organized files and assets, and assist with archiving and cataloging design materials as needed.

Qualifications:

- Proficiency in graphic design software such as Adobe Creative Suite (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign).
- Strong portfolio showcasing creative and visually appealing design work.
- Excellent understanding of design principles, typography, and color theory.
- Ability to translate conceptual ideas into polished visual assets.
- Attention to detail and a keen eye for aesthetics.

- Strong communication and collaboration skills.
- Ability to work independently and manage time effectively.
- Passion for promoting health and wellbeing within the Black community.

Benefits:

- Opportunity to contribute your design skills to a meaningful cause and make a positive impact in the Black community.
- Gain valuable experience working on diverse design projects and collaborating with a dedicated team.
- Flexible schedule with the option to work remotely.
- Networking opportunities and the chance to build connections within the nonprofit sector.
- Recognition and appreciation for your contributions to our organization and mission.

If you are a creative and motivated graphic designer looking to volunteer your skills for a worthy cause, we encourage you to apply for this volunteer position with the Black Health Commission. Join us in creating visually compelling and impactful communications that promote wellbeing and resilience within our community!
